8:15 a.m. – 8:45 a.m. Opening General Session

Keynote Speaker – Barry McCabe, Back from the Abyss - Where To From Here? With a keen understanding of our past and today's current challenges, Barry McCabe is an industry icon who will offer insights for the industry's return to prosperity. Barry and his partners at Hometown America created a widely imitated in-house financing model that opened opportunities for homeowners while providing compliance with federal and state laws and regulations. Now as a principal in Origen Financial Services he continues to advance those efforts and explore other innovative ways to improve occupancy for members of MHI's National Communities Council.

8:45 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Community Refinance and Acquisition Lending- The Effects of the Commercial Meltdown- Myth or Reality?

The capital markets and the economy have had a drastic effect on the commercial mortgage industry, and are affecting community owners who need to refinance existing properties- and making it difficult to acquire new properties. Some experts have said the effects are being overstated- is this a myth or reality? This session will evaluate the current status of the commercial mortgage market- and offer effective solutions to owners who need to access this highly sought after and critical source of capital.

Speakers Creighton Weber, Wels Fargo Commercial Mortgage; and Charlie Williams, Keystone Commercial Capital

6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Reception in Exhibit Hall

The NCC was formed in 1996 to provide owners and managers of land-lease communities a forum for establishing policies and programs to enhance communities nationwide. The NCC accomplishes its mission through education, promotion of professional management practices, market-based initiatives and sound regulatory and legislative reform.

ULI has members in 95 countries worldwide, representing the entire spectrum of land use and real estate development disciplines, working in private enterprise and public service. ULI councils play a key role in ULI’s mission of providing leadership in the responsible use of land and creating and sustaining thriving communities. The ULI Manufactured Housing Community Council provides a forum for information exchange among peers and creates an environment for addressing problems and opportunities within the field.
